

RÉSUMÉ

Monika Grütters

Member of the German Bundestag
Christian Democratic Union/Christian Social Union
(CDU/CSU)

Professor
Foundation board member
Born in Münster/Westphalia on the 9th of January 1962

Roman Catholic; unmarried

- 1981 Attended "Marienschule" grammar school for girls in Münster, taking her Abitur (higher education entrance qualification)
- 1982/89 Studied German literature, art history and political science at the universities of Münster and Bonn, and took her Master's degree in the winter semester of 1988/1989
- 1983/89 Was selected as a Konrad Adenauer Scholar, by the Konrad Adenauer Foundation's Institute for the Promotion of the Gifted
- 1990/91 Public Relations advisor for the Museum for Transport and Technology Berlin
- 1991/92 Public Relations advisor for Bouvier und Nicolai mbH
- since 1991 Assistant lecturer of Public Relations for the Cultural Management degree course at the "Hanns-Eisler Academy of Music", Free University of Berlin, Honorary Professor of Cultural Management at the "Hanns-Eisler Academy of Music", Free University Berlin, 1999
- 1992/1995 Press Spokesperson for the Berlin Senate Administration for Science and Research
- 1995/2005 Member of the Berlin City/State Parliament
- Deputy Chairperson for the parliamentary committee for and cultural and scientific policy
 - Spokesperson of the CDU parliamentary group
 - Member of the Committee on Science and Research and the
 - Member of the Committee on Cultural Affairs,
 - Member of the Executive Committee of the Berlin State branch of the CDU
- 1995/2006 Public Relations Advisor for the Bankgesellschaft Berlin AG
- since 1998 Executive Board spokesperson for the "Brandenburg Gate" Foundation of the Landesbank Berlin Holding AG
- since 2005 Member of the German Bundestag
Membership of Bundestag bodies:
- Study Commission on Culture in Germany
 - Committee on Education, Research and Technology Assessment
 - Committee on Cultural and Media Affairs
 - Subcommittee on Cultural and Education Policy Abroad